

THE US GOVERNMENT IS PREPARING TO SEND OUT DIRECT PAYMENTS TO HELP INDIVIDUALS AMID THE CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

1

WHO GETS A CHECK?

If you make less than $75,000 (or $150,000 per couple) you may be eligible to receive a check. If you make more than that, you might still receive a check but for a lesser amount.

2

HOW WILL I RECEIVE THE PAYMENT?

The payment will be deposited directly into the same banking account that you used for your most recent tax return.

3

WHAT IF THE IRS DOES NOT HAVE MY BANK INFO?

Soon there will be a web-based portal for you to provide your banking info online instead of receiving a check in the mail.

4

I AM NOT TYPICALLY REQUIRED TO FILE TAXES. WHAT THEN?

You can still receive a check. The IRS will use info from forms SSA-1099 or RRB-1099. This includes senior citizens, Social Security recipients and railroad retirees who are not otherwise required to file a tax return.

5

I AM REQUIRED TO FILE TAXES- BUT HAVE NOT.

Can I still receive the check? Yes. The IRS urges anyone with a tax filing obligation who has not yet filed a tax return for 2018 or 2019 to file as soon as they can to receive an economic impact payment.

6

WHERE CAN I GET MORE INFO?

The IRS will post all key information on IRS.gov/coronavirus as soon as it becomes available.
